THE FIRST SNOW-FALL. The snow had begun in the gloaming,
And busily all the night
Had been heaping field and highway
With a silence deep and white.

Every pine, and fir, and hemlock, Wore ermine too dear for an Earl, And the poorest twing on the elm tree Was fringed inch deep with the pearl. From sheds new-roofed with Carrara Came Chanticleer's muffled crow, The stiff rails were softened to swan's-down And still fluttered down the snow. I stood and watched by the window
The noiseless work of the sky,
And the sudden flurries of snow birds.
Like brown leaves whirling by.

I thought of a mound in sweet Auburn, Where a little head-stone stood— Where the flakes were folding it gently, As did robins the babes in the woods. Up spoke our little Mabel,
Saying, "Father, who makes it snow?"
And I told her of the good All-Father
Who cares for us below, Again I looked at the snow fall, And thought of the leaden sky
That arched o'er our first great sorrow
When the mound was heaped so high, I remember the gradual patience That fell from the cloud like snow, Flake by flake, healing and hiding

The scar of that deep stabbed woe. And again to the child I whispered, can make it fall." Then with eyes that saw not, I kissed her, And she kissed back, but could not know

Insanity in the Middle Ages. The middle ages were a period of un-up in the bottomless abyss of scholasti-cism and demonology, and medicine became a routine of superstitious practices. Such and such a plant was considered beneficial, if gathered at the new moon; but deadly poison, if at the moon's wane. Science, art, and literature, went down in the storm; and wars, battles, pestilence, and famine were the order of the day. As God was invoked in vain, men turned to Satan. The belief in the devil was universal. and the world became a hell. Now both science and experience show that the prevailing notions of a given period are very rapidly taken up by the insane, and by them distorted into grotesque shapes, with a uniformity resembling the symptoms of epidemic disorders. This phenomenon is of daily occurrence. Thus, accordingly as France is ruled by a king, an emperor, or a president, those insane persons who imagine themselves to be somebody, claim the rank of president, emperor, or king, as the case may be. There are at the present time in the various French asylums, men of unquestionable patriotism who will tell you that they guided the Prussians up the heights of Sedan. The phenomenon therefore of diabolical possession in the middle ages is perfectly natural. The calamities attendant on continual wars had so enervated the people, that they were fit subjects for all manner of mental disorder; and this taking the found the providing ideas of the times, found expression in demoniacal possession. During the middle ages the devil was every ubique dæmon. There was one religious sect whose adepts were ever spitting, hawking, and blowing the nose with a view to expel the devils they had swallowed. A trace of this still remains in some localities, where one who sneezes is saluted with 'God bless you!' Such beliefs were universal. And between my patient's set teeth I contrived to pour from a spoon a small quantity of powerful stimulant, whose effect was almost magical, but at the same time strangely evanescent. For, in my capacity of surgeon of a Pennsylvania regiment, on service down South against the Confederates, I had had men brought in stricken down by a new enemy. TRIBUNE

FARMERS AND FAMILIES.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, now more than thirty years old, devotes a large share of its columns of agriculture, employing the ablest and most successful cultivators to set forth what they know of matring in brief, clear essays, elucidating and commending Agriculture as the first and most important of rogressive arts based on natural science. wants of mankind.

"Home Interests" are discussed each week by a lady specially qualified to instruct and charm her own sex, and the younger portion of the other. No column is more eagerly sought or perused with greater average profit than hers. The News of the Day is condensed, white given sufficiently in detail to entisty the wants of the average reader.

As to its political principles. The Tribung is of course, hereafter as heretofore, the champion of equal rights, irrespective of race nativity, or color. Independent of all political parties, The Tribung endeavors to treat them all with judicial fairness. It labors to purify the administration of Government, National, State, and Municipal, and whenever those in authority take the lead in this work, it will therein give them its cordial support, but it can never be the servitor of any pointical party; nor will it supremide or even walve its right to criticis and condens what is works, and command what is roduce, and other arrivers, will obtain the former or artizan, The Weekly Tribung has no superior, as For the family circle of the educated farmer or artizan, The Weekly Tribung has no superior, as is proved by the hundreds of thousands who, having read it from childhood, still cherish and enjoy it in the down hill of life.

We respectfully urge those who know its worth to commend The Weekly Tribune to their friends and heighbors, and we profier it to clubs at prices which barely pay the cost of paper and pross-work.

Concentrated Extract of

BUCHU COMBINED WITH

Bromide of Potassium. Purchase a Bottle and carefully read directions.

BUCHU is a stimulant, and of liself may fail to effect a cure, but Buchu, when scientifically combined with Bromide of Potassium and otheringredients, produces a sedative effect, and causes a realthy action, thus increasing the powers of digestion, allaying irritation, reducing all unnatural swellings, stopping pain and inflammation and causing the repairs and nutriments in the human body to be greater than the wastes, thus preventing decomposition and decay, and gives nourishment, health and vigor to the system.

My Buchu is good for all diseases arising from excesses; such as Weakness, and Pain in the Back and Legs, Trembling in the region of the Heart, Weak Nerves, Pallid Countenance, Dryness of the Skin, Scrofula, Syphilis, in its many forms, Ul-cers, and Tumors. If your system is affected by any of the above symptoms and diseases, relief is at hand. Get a bottle of my Buchu and Bromide of Potassium at once and you may rely on being cured.

I know just what I say. My record as a Compounder of Medicine is second to no man in the Southwest. Twenty-five or thirty years ago, as my fellow-citizens know full well, found me behind the prescription counter in the city of which I now dwell; I have cured more people of various diseases than all the physicians in Louisville put together. Undoubtedly, for every single patient that any Louisville physician has I have hundred. I am no upstart of yesterday. My medicines are a success-a great success. Louisville is not large enough for me to have a competitor. I monopolize the Wholesale Patent Medicine trade here. One and another has tried, by copying after me here in Louisville, to compete with me, but, one after another, their guns have been silenced, and their efforts have been abortive. My medicines are good and answer the purpose-that is the secret of my success. My reputation as a compounder of good, reliable articles is fully established. I believe my Buchu and Bromide of Potassium is the best article now in the market for the cure of all diseases of the rinary or genito-urinary organs, such as Nocturnal Incontinence, Irritability of Agent, the Bladder and Urethra, Inflammation of the Pelvis of the Kidney, and all that class of diseases. Buy a dollar bettle and be cured. Use as per directions in all cases.

AGUE AND FEVER

CHILLS AND FEVE

The proprietor of this celebrated medi cine justly claims for it a superiority all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy, and permanen cure of Ague and Fever, or Chilis and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for week or two after the disease has: checked, more especially in difficul long standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of
